South East Cornwall Tourism Association (SECTA) is pleased to announce the winners of their 2006 Caradon in Bloom Competition.

Entries were invited from across South East Cornwall and 70 entries were received. The judges, from Looe in Bloom, were pleased by the quality of entries and found the judging a difficult, but pleasurable, job. The winning entries are:

- Best Private Garden, Mrs Edythe Coles, Looe.
- Best Commercial Garden, Treworrey Cottages, Duloe.
- Best Private Floral Display, Miss E Walters, Tremar.
- Best Commercial Floral Display, Driftwood, Looe.
- Best Private Wildlife Garden, Caroline Petherick at St Martin's by Looe.
- Best Commercial Wildlife Garden, The Monkey Sanctuary, St Martin's by Looe.
- Best Town/Village, Polperro.
- Best SECTA Member, Treworrey Cottages.

Runner up awards also go to: Trawlers by the Quay in Looe; Ginsters in Callington; Caroline Ford, Sandplace; The Old Rectory in Lanreath; Tregertha Court, East Looe; Mr & Mrs Gilbert of Pelynt; D Trewartha in Callington and Mr & Mrs Shears in Liskeard.

Organiser, Senara Higgs, from SECTA said "We have been delighted with the quality of entries. Many people across our area put a lot of time and effort into making South East Cornwall look even more special, and it is fantastic to be able to recognise their hard work." She continued "This year we are very pleased to have the support of South West Water who donated water saving trigger guns for hosepipes and water butts for prizes."

Certificates and trophies will be presented by Cllr R Overd, Major of Looe, at the first autumn SECTA meeting at the Hannafore Point Hotel on 28 September.

SECTA is the organization for suppliers of goods, accommodation, activities, information and services to the holiday industry in South East Cornwall.
