Draft Bloom – 1

Last chance to nominate for SECTA's Caradon in Bloom Competition!

Friday 30 June is the deadline for nominations in South East Cornwall Tourism Association's Caradon in Bloom Competition. Reinstated after a two year break, the competition aims to recognise the efforts of residents and businesses that make a special effort to keep gardens and floral displays special and the area looking its best.

Nominations are invited for the following categories:

- Best Private Garden
- Best Commercial Garden
- Best Private Floral Display
- Best Commercial Floral Display
- Best Private Wildlife Garden
- Best Commercial Wildlife Garden
- Best Town
- Best Village

Send your nominations to organiser, Senara Higgs, by phoning 01503 220701 or by e-mail at senara@senater.co.uk by Friday 30 June.

Senara said today "We have already had several entries, but would like even more. We'd particularly like more entries from towns and villages across the district." She continued "Judges will be out and about in early July to judge entries and we'll announce winners later in the summer."

SECTA is the organisation for suppliers of goods, accommodation, activities, information and services to the holiday industry in South East Cornwall. Anyone interested in joining should check out the web site www.secta.org.uk , contact the secretary by e mail secretary@secta.org.uk or phone 01503 263593.
